Jody Gingery Memorial Scholarship Application
For Nurses or Students of Nursing to attend the University of Utah School on Alcoholism and other Drug Dependence

Jody Gingery, RN, served as the executive director of the Colorado Prescription Drug Abuse Task Force for over 20 years. Peer Assistance Services, Inc. is pleased to offer a memorial scholarship in honor of her dedication to the prevention and intervention of substance use disorders. This $1,000.00 scholarship is available to a nurse or student of nursing with an interest in the prevention, recognition, and treatment of alcoholism and other substance abuse.

The Utah School on Alcoholism and other Drug Dependencies will be held in June in Salt Lake City, Utah. Continuing education credits (CEU) and/or university credit may be available for participation. More information may be obtained at: <http://uuhschool.utah.edu/uas>

Your application and essay will be reviewed by a committee of Peer Assistance Services. Recipients will be asked to discuss their experiences during Utah School with the review committee.
Thank you for your interest!

Applications are due by May 1 and should be submitted to:
